The Army Painter Newsletter March 2009

Here at The Army Painter we are constantly working hard to make the life of the retailer as easy as possible; great looking POS, better margin on the CORE products and manageably sized dispensers and stock holding. Over the next 3-4 months we're releasing more Dispensers and Core products – like the upcoming Plastic Glue Dispenser.

Credit and Payment notifications

We have recently been affected by an increasing number of late payments. Of course we appreciate times are tough at the moment, however collection of overdue invoices from The Army Painter will now run in conjunction with an outside collecting agency.

This will mean instant charges for invoices more than 14 days late, systemized account statements, emails and phone calls, etc. This is what these guys do...

This has taken effect as of 1st March 2009.

3 TUTORIAL FILMS on website

In order to guide new gamers on how to use The Army Painter Colour Primers and Quick Shade most effectively, we have added 3 Tutorial Films to our website. Feel free to link from your websites.

Price Rise 6th April

Due to increasing costs, we are changing a few of the prices as of April 6th.

We have kept the price rises to an absolute minimum, affecting only 4 items:

- Base Primer Matt Black
- Base Primer Matt White
- Base Primer "Anti-Shine"
- Tools – Green Stuff.

More information and new order forms will be sent out later in March, giving you a chance to place orders at the current price levels.

We will officially inform end-user customers about the price rise on our website March 16th.
